603 LANGUAGE ARTS CLASS
SPECIAL ACHIEVEMENT AWARDS

To get the idea for this play, Alison Edmunds, Arlene Rich, Brenda Perrault, and Frankie Brown had to compete with some of their classmates to see who could write the best play. After everybody had created their 'master pieces', the kids took a vote to see which one we would perform. The Special Achievement Awards won. Then our teacher, Mr. Peach, showed us how we could correct our grammar. Then we thought about which characters we could add or take out. Then the rest was easy. All it took was practise, practise, practise ...

Alison Edmunds.
