SCENE 1

Welcome to our feature presentation, Rock 'N Roll Fish. This year our play is about fish. We're not talking about your average fish either. And while we're on the topic, the students aren't so average and neither is the place they visit. Come along for the fun anyway. We hope that you enjoy it!!

Narrator: We will take you now to our grade 5 math class where students are unhappily studying math. Borrrrrring.

Teacher: Now class, close your books and we will go right into Social Studies. We will be continuing on our fish theme...

Students: BOOOO BOOOOO. Fish stink. Yah, and they taste bad too. Who really cares about fish anyway?

Teacher: Now that's enough class. Settle down.

(kids argue with teacher. Bell rings. Recess time)

SCENE 2

Narrator: "I came into the classroom and I put my time machine in the middle of the room. I should have known better. I should have known better. Then they came in.

Kid #1: Hey Mr. braino so tell us - what did you make this time?

Kid #2: Yeah smarty what did you come up with this time?

Kid #3: Ah, let's not waste our time on him. Let's check out this little so-called time machine.

The Brain: NO NO. Please don't ruin my time machine. Please, just don't touch it. Leave me alone.

Kid #4: You call that little piece of junk a time machine??

The Brain: As a matter of fact it is. I'm surprised that your pea-sized brain can comprehend such an idea. Miracles of miracles. Just stay away from it. You have no idea of it's power so I advise you to just keep your distance.

BRAIN PUTS MACHINE IN CORNER. BULLIES START PUSHING HIM AROUND. BRAIN TRIPS OVER THE BOOK HITTING THE LEVER ON THE TIME MACHINE. BRAIN IS COMPLETELY SHOCKED.

KIDS ARE PUZZLED. THEY STARE AT EACH OTHER NERVOUSLY. LIGHTS FLASH. INCREDIBLE NOISES. ZAP. THEY ARE SUCKED INTO THE MACHINE AND GO BACK IN TIME.

SCENE 3

Narrator: So, the machine really did work. Just where did those kids go? Well, they back to the year 1850 and landed on an island called "Funny French Fish island". For those of you who aren't geography experts, this island is off the Labrador coast not far from Nain.

Bully #1: Where are we?

#2: Holy smokes! I can't believe that the machine really did work.

#4: Wait. This must be some kind of joke. A joke that I'm not finding very funny at the moment.

ENTER SCIENTIST FROM BEHIND

Scientist: Joke? You're the joke. What kind of clothes are you wearing? Is Halloween early this year?

#2: Who are YOU? Actually, more importantly, WHERE are WE?

Scientist: My name is Dr. Fool with Fish, but the fish call me Dr. Foolish. I kind of live up to the name I suppose.

#1: My hearing must be going. Since when do fish talk?

Scientist: Your silly questions suit your silly clothing. Fish have always been able to talk. They're just a little selective of to whom they speak.

#4: So where are these talking fish? I'm not convinced.

Scientist: Come along.

SCENE 4

Narrator: So you've met the bullies and the scientists and next you will meet the fish. Or rather the French fish. The silly scientist was true to his work and took the kids on what would prove to be the greatest adventure of their lives. He took them to a secret hidden part of the sea, and, well, what happened from there - you wouldn't believe me if I told you.

KIDS AND SCIENTIST ARE ON WHARF TOGETHER. SCIENTIST SINGS A SONG I ORDER TO CALL THE FISH.

Scientist: FISH FISH WHEREVER YOU MAY BE STOP WHAT YOU'RE DOING AND SWIM TO ME.

ENTER FISH

Fish #?: Who de heck are dese peepel he Foolish?

Fish #?: Who are day and what are day wearing?

Fish #?: Yeah, and where did day git dose strange clodes? Looks worse than the seaweed in my bathtub.

Narrator: Cruel words coming from fish but those kids must have looked kind of funny. Besides they deserved it in many way.

Kid #?: We look just as different to you as you do to us.

Scientist: STOP! There is something that most of you have coming.

Fish #?: What could that be Foolish?

Scientist: SWINGS HIPS FOOLISHLY. ALL SING AND DANCE.

INTERCOM ANNOUNCES QUICK DEPARTURE.

Kid #?: Let's go.

Kid #?: No, I'm staying.

20 SECONDS.

Fish: Au revoir mes amis. Bon Courage!! Pensez a vos familles.

Kid: Come on. This is serious. I'll dray you if I have to. I'm out of here. Are you with us or not. I don't want to stay here forever.

Bully: We'd better go.

RUNNING AWAY THE BULLIES WAVE GOOD-BYE.

SCENE 5

BLAST OFF. EXIT TIME MACHINE.

SETTING CHANGE. KIDS RUN BACK IN CLASSROOM JUST IN TIME FOR CLASS. BELL RINGS.

Narrator: The kids make it back in time for class.

Teacher: Too bad fish don't talk.

Kid 2: But they do talk. Why else would they have mouths?

CLASS LAUGHS

Kid 3: They dance too and can play rock and roll.

Kid 4: They have long hair and can play guitars. Honestly.

CLASS LAUGHS AGAIN

Teacher: That's enough. For being late and telling lies, all four of you have detention.

Kid ?: You believe me don't you??

The End
